Political Committee of C.C. of WPK Adopts Decision to Pay Tribute to Memory of Late Comrade Kim Jong Tai

PYONGYANG, July 12 (KCNA)—The Political Committee of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea adopted a decision on July 12 to pay tribute to the memory of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party.

The decision said:

Comrade Kim Jong Tai, a revolutionary fighter of South Korea, was arrested while waging a vigorous struggle in the van of revolutionaries and patriots, upholding the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, for the national and social emancipation of the South Korean people and the independent unification of the fatherland, and was murdered by the enemy on July 10, 1969, to our sorrow.

Upon hearing the sad news that Comrade Kim Jong Tai, a South Korean revolutionary fighter, was murdered, the Political Committee, together with the entire Party members and the working people, expresses its deep condolence.

Referring to the revolutionary activities of Comrade Kim Jong Tai and his immortal exploits in the struggle, the decision said:

From his early school days the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai instilled anti-Japanese patriotism into youth and students, and fought against the colonial enslavement policy of the Japanese imperialists.

After the August 15, the Comrade energetically conducted revolutionary activities against the U.S. imperialist aggressors who crept into South Korea to replace Japanese imperialism, and their stooges, and organized and led the mass uprisings in North and South Kyungsang Provinces at the time of the heroic April Uprising of the South Korean people, 1960.

Particularly, the Comrade undertook and played an important guiding role in founding the United Revolutionary Party, one of the major revolutionary organizations of South Korea, and further consolidating and developing it.

As one of the guiding personnel of this organization, the Comrade took the heavy duty of the Chairman of its Seoul Municipal Committee and made a great contribution to firmly rallying workers, peasants, youths and students, intellectuals and other broad sections of the patriotic, democratic forces and organizing and mobilizing them in the struggle for freedom and liberation.

The Comrade also made an important service in arming the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots with the great ideas of Juche of Comrade Kim Il Sung and promoting the national and class awakening of the masses of the people through the "Revolutionary Front," the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and its journal "Chungmaik."

The Comrade did not cease his just struggle even after he was arrested by the enemy, and upheld to the last the lofty revolutionary constancy of a Korean Communist.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai was a true revolutionary soldier infinitely faithful to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the Korean revolution, and a paragon of the South Korean revolutionaries who inherited the glorious revolutionary traditions of the anti-Japanese armed struggle, the decision noted.

The Political Committee decided to pay the whole-Party and whole-nation homage to the memory of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, a revolutionary fighter, who made immortal exploits in the building of a Marxist-Leninist Party and the development of the revolutionary movement in South Korea and to mark off the period from July 13 to July 19, 1969, as a period of memorial service throughout the country. In this period memorial services for the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai who was the Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party will be organized in all provinces (municipalities), cities (districts), county seats, factories, enterprises, co-operative farms, and educational, cultural and public health organs and army units and units by all the provincial (municipal), city (district), and county Party Committees and the army unit and unit Party Committees of the Korean People's Army (garrison).

A memorial service in Pyongyang, the capital of revolution, will be held at the Pyongyang Grand Theatre from four hours p.m. on July 13, 1969.

In conclusion, the decision noted that the Pyongyang Electric Locomotive Factory and Haeju Normal College will be called the Kim Jong Tai Electric Locomotive Factory and Kim Jong Tai Normal College to hand down forever the revolutionary exploits of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter.

Your Excellency Premier,

Today we members of the Pakistan-Korea Friendship Association gathered here, meeting the "Month of Anti-U.S. Joint Struggle for the Withdrawal of U.S. Imperialist Aggressor Troops from South Korea." We are happy to address this message reverentially to you, the great Leader of the Korean revolution and the world revolution. We infinitely adore your strong fighting spirit and encouraging leadership with which you saved the Korean people from the darkness of the Japanese imperialist colonial rule, repulsed the heinous Yankee aggression and exploded the myth about the "mightiness" of U.S. imperialism. You have shown the world people that no one, no allied imperialist force, can subdue a people who are determined to stand on their own feet on the revolutionary principles of self-reliance. Especially, the peoples of the developing countries of the world are boundlessly inspired by your great ideas of Juche and revolutionary spirit of self-reliance. We wish you good health and a long life for leading your valiant people from victory to victory in the struggle for the unification of Korea.

We pay respects to Your Excellency Premier, the brilliant sun of the East.

The message adopted at the meeting reads in full:

Functionaries of the Constantine Provincial Committee of the Algerian National Liberation Front, personages of public organizations, party members and union members and inhabitants who held a meeting to express solidarity with the struggle of the Korean people on the occasion of the month of anti-U.S. joint struggle, reaffirm firm solidarity with the heroic Korean people who under the wise leadership of Your Excellency Premier Kim Il Sung are gallantly fighting against U.S. imperialism.

We resolutely denounce the provocations and crimes of U.S. imperialism against the Korean people and world peace.

We demand the unconditional withdrawal of all foreign troops from South Korea to let the Korean people shape their future by themselves.

We support the firm determination of the entire Korean people to keep the struggle against U.S. imperialism and its followers till final victory is won.

We take this opportunity to call upon the progressive people of the world to unite firmly for the strengthening of the anti-imperialist struggle and for a durable peace in the world.

Message from Representative of Eritrean Liberation Front in Cairo

PYONGYANG, July 8 (KCNA) —Premier Kim Il Sung received a message from Tahanur, representative of the Eritrean Liberation Front in Cairo on the occasion of the "Month of Anti-U.S. Joint Struggle for the Withdrawal of U.S. Imperialist Aggressor Troops from South Korea."

The message reads:

On the occasion of the month of June 25-July 27 the Eritrean Liberation Front extends once again full support to and solidarity with the Korean people in their heroic struggle for forcing U.S. imperialist aggressor troops out of South Korea and unifying the fatherland under the outstanding leadership of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the Korean people.

Nineteen years ago the U.S. imperialists ignited a war against the young Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

But, under the wise leadership of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the Korean people and the heroic Korean People's Army rose up as one in the struggle for defending the independence of the fatherland and the gains of revolution and won a great victory.

The historic victory won by the Korean people was a brilliant fruition of the great revolutionary ideas and outstanding strategy and tactics of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the sagacious Leader, who skilfully organized and mobilized the people and army in the struggle for expelling the aggressors.

The great victory won by the Korean people in the war clearly showed that no army of aggression, with whatever weapon, could vanquish a people deeply conscious of the justness of their revolutionary cause.

Marshal Kim Il Sung said:

"The victory of our people in the Korean War was a victory of the revolutionary people over the imperialist reactionary forces, a victory of the revolutionary army over the aggressive armed forces of imperialism."

In the Fatherland Liberation War the Korean people thwarted the aggressive design of the U.S. imperialist aggressors threatening the countries of the socialist camp, firmly defended the eastern post of the socialist camp and made a great contribution to defending world peace and security.

The Eritrean people are overwhelmed with admiration for the struggle of the Korean people and regard it as great revolutionary experience.

Long live Marshal Kim Il Sung!

Long live the Korean people!

Long live the Korean People's Army!

Long live the struggle of the Korean and Eritrean peoples!

Down with U.S. imperialism!

Great Revolutionary Ideas of Premier KIM IL SUNG and Strategic Lines Put Forth by Him Powerfully Inspire World Revolutionary Peoples in Anti-Imperialist, Anti-U.S. Struggle

PYONGYANG, July 7 (KCNA)—Iraqi paper "BAGDAD OBSERVER" respectfully carried a portrait of Premier Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, and printed the full text of his treatise of genius "Let Us Step Up the Anti-Imperialist, Anti-U.S. Struggle," according to a report from Bagdad.

The paper wrote in a foreword that it carries the full text of "Let Us Step Up the Anti-Imperialist, Anti-U.S. Struggle," a historic treatise authored by Premier Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, ever-victorious iron-willed brilliant commander, outstanding anti-imperialist, anti-U.S. fighter and great Marxist-Leninist, on the occasion of the "Month of Anti-U.S. Joint Struggle for the Withdrawal of U.S. Imperialist Aggressor Troops from South Korea."

The paper went on:

In the treatise Premier Kim Il Sung analysed in a scientific way the present age in which the strong tide of revolution is surging with an irresistible force, elucidated a most correct Marxist-Leninist line and strategy and tactics for the final victory of the world revolution and clarified with his genius the revolutionary stand and ways of struggle which the world revolutionaries and revolutionary peoples should maintain without fail in the anti-imperialist, anti-U.S. struggle.

Saying that as the fatal hour of imperialism is drawing nearer, the struggle is becoming more intensified, he referred to the historic significance of the anti-imperialist, anti-colonialist struggle of the Asian, African and Latin American peoples.

Noting that the nature of imperialism cannot change and the oppressed peoples can liberate themselves only through struggle, Premier Kim Il Sung also expounded in a scientific way that in order to fight against imperialism, it is important first of all to concentrate attack upon U.S. imperialism, the chieftain of world imperialism, and to form a broad anti-U.S. united front.

Premier Kim Il Sung said:

"In whatever part of the world the U.S. imperialist forces of aggression may be wiped out, it will be a very good thing for all peoples of the world. It is necessary, therefore, to form a broadest possible anti-U.S. united front to isolate U.S. imperialism thoroughly, and administer blows to it by united efforts wherever U.S. imperialism is engaged in aggression. Only by so doing, is it possible to disperse and weaken the force of U.S. imperialism to the last degree and lead the people on every front to beat U.S. imperialism with an overwhelming power."

In the treatise he laid stress on defending in the joint struggle against imperialism the revolution which has already triumphed and rendering active support to all the anti-imperialist forces fighting against U.S. imperialism.

This treatise authored by Premier Kim Il Sung, the outstanding Leader of revolution, serves as a textbook of struggle and a powerful ideological and theoretical weapon inspiring infinite courage and confidence in the peoples of the three continents and revolutionary peoples who have risen up in a sacred struggle for sweeping away U.S. imperialism, the chieftain of aggression and war, once and for all.

This treatise is a most great Marxist-Leninist document of our age which elucidates a most correct strategic line and practical way for concentrating attack on U.S. imperialism, the ringleader of imperialism, forming a broad anti-U.S. united front, knocking down U.S. imperialism and bringing earlier the final victory of the world revolution and a precious historic document, more valuable than thousands of pieces of gold, which clearly illumines the road of struggle ahead of the world revolutionaries.

Today the great revolutionary ideas and strategic lines expounded in "Let Us Step Up the Anti-Imperialist, Anti-U.S. Struggle," a treatise authored by Premier Kim Il Sung, one of the outstanding leaders of the world revolutionary movement and international working-class movement, firmly grips the hearts of the world people, infinitely stirs them and energetically inspires them in the anti-imperialist, anti-U.S. struggle.

Title of Hero of DPRK Awarded to Late Comrade Kim Jong Tai

PYONGYANG, July 12 (KCNA)—The Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea issued today a decree on awarding the Title of Hero of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea to the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai.

The decree said that the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter of South Korea, performed heroic feats in the sacred revolutionary struggle for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, holding aloft the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people.

The Comrade had waged an unflagging revolutionary struggle for the freedom and liberation of the people and the unification and independence of the fatherland from the first days of the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialist aggressors and as one of the founders of the United Revolutionary Party, taking the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung as the guiding compass, he played an important leading role in the work for expanding and consolidating the Party, the decree noted and went on:

The Comrade, assuming the heavy duty of the Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the Party, formed various mass organizations including the "Fatherland Liberation Front" and the "National Liberation Front" along the strategic and tactical line on the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, put forth by Comrade Kim Il Sung, and made a great contribution to firmly uniting the broad masses of the people, workers, peasants, youth and students, intellectuals, etc. and to organizing and mobilizing them into the struggle against the U.S. imperialist aggressors and their stooges.

The Comrade also published the "Revolutionary Front," the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and the journal "Chungmaik" and did an important service in arming the revolutionaries and patriots with the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, a great Marxist-Leninist of our era, and enhancing the class and national awakening of the masses of the people.

Even after he was arrested by the enemy the Comrade unflinchingly fought to the last moment of his life and upheld to the last the lofty revolutionary constancy of a Korean Communist.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai was a revolutionary soldier boundlessly faithful to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the Korean people, and is a paragon of the South Korean revolutionaries who inherited the glorious revolutionary traditions of the anti-Japanese armed struggle.

The Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea awards the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, the Title of Hero of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, together with Gold Star Medal and Order of National Flag, in high recognition of the heroic exploits made by him in the struggle for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, the decree noted in conclusion.

On Death of Chairman Kim Jong Tai of Seoul Municipal Committee of United Revolutionary Party

PYONGYANG, July 12 (KCNA)—Today our people pay the last homage to Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, noted author and Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai who had fought, denying himself sleep and rest, for the South Korean revolution and the historic cause of national unification for a long period, was murdered to our regret by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen on Jul. 10, 1969.

The death of Comrade Kim Jong Tai who devoted his whole life for the victory of the South Korean revolution, wholeheartedly upholding the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, is indeed a great loss for our people.

Born into a poor family in Naingchun-dong, Keumho myun, Yungchun county, North Kyungsang Province, on Nov. 24, 1926, Comrade Kim Jong Tai took the road of revolution in his early age and covered the path of arduous struggle.

In August 1944, the Comrade formed a reading circle against Japanese imperialism with Taegu as the centre and resolutely fought against the colonial enslavement education of Japanese imperialism, and right after Aug. 15, 1945, he organized and guided the movement of youths and students against the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialists and their policy of colonial enslavement.

Already from that time the Comrade, infinitely revering Comrade Kim Il Sung, the sun of our nation, assiduously read his works of genius and held aloft the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader as the torch of struggle illumining darkness in South Korea.

The Comrade who moved the theatre of struggle to schools where young students are concentrated, in July 1948 engaged himself in educational work for many years on the platform of middle and high schools and universities to implant the great image of the Leader in the hearts of the rising generation and arm them with revolutionary consciousness.

The Comrade formed the "Chungmaik Society," a mass organization in May 1956 and gradually built up the foothold of his activities in the working class, rallying the people of all strata.

The Comrade, taking the post of guiding adviser of the North Kyungsang Provincial Labour Federation, founded "Hankook Rodong Shinmoon" to enhance the national and class consciousness of the working class and the masses of the people in the Province and organized and guided the mass uprising of the people in the areas of Kyungsang Provinces at the time of the April, 1960 Uprising.

After the April Uprising, the Comrade took the road of underground revolutionary activities with a staüncher revolutionary stamina for the South Korean revolution and the cause of national unification.

The Comrade, concerned more about the sufferings of the masses of the people groaning under the colonial rule of U.S. imperialism than about himself and his kith and kin, strove with his all energies to carry out the strategic and tactical line of Comrade Kim Il Sung on founding a Marxist-Leninist Party and building up a powerful revolutionary force in South Korea.

Even under the difficult conditions of South Korea where the freedom of the organization and activity of a revolutionary party is denied under the barbarous fascist terror rule of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique, the Comrade, together with his comrades, organized a "preparatory committee" for founding the United Revolutionary Party with the nuclei tested in the struggle through the "Chungmaik Society" and so forth, and undertook and played an important guiding role in founding the Party.

Overcoming the grim trials in which bayonets, prison and gallows were blocking the road ahead of him, the Comrade, together with Choi Yung Do and other comrades-in-arms, founded at last on Mar. 15, 1964, the United Revolutionary Party, an underground revolutionary organization taking the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, as the guiding compass and representing the interests of the workers, peasants and other exploited and oppressed masses of the people of South Korea and dedicated his all to the struggle to build up the Party organization as a militant, dynamic vanguard of revolution till the last moment of his life. On the road of this glorious struggle the Comrade, taking the important post of the Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, energetically organized and guided the work of laying the mass basis of the Party, while expanding and strengthening the Party organization.

The Comrade took part in organizing various democratic organizations such as illegal "National Liberation Front" and "Fatherland Liberation Front" and mass organizations, "Association of University Graduates in the 1960's," "Society for Study of New Culture," "Young Literary Men's Society," "Chungmaik Society," "Pub of University Graduates," "Society for Study of Nationalism," "Christian Youth Association for Economic Affluence," "Buddhist Youth Society," "Donghak Society" and "Kyungwoo Society" and strove to rally the masses of the people around the Party and form an anti-U.S., national salvation united front embracing broad patriotic, democratic forces.

Having realized the truth that revolution starts from awakening the masses, Comrade Kim Jong Tai directed particularly deep attention to the political and ideological work for awakening the workers, peasants and other masses of the people in a revolutionary way.

In this work the Comrade, as he was deeply convinced that the only correct ideas illumining in a most scientific way the road ahead of the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland are solely the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, great Marxism-Leninism of our times, put it up as the first and foremost task to arm the revolutionaries and people firmly with the ideas of the Leader and closely rally them around him.

Under the circumstances of the grim struggle in which the fascist suppression and white terror by the enemy were rampant, the Comrade always established the habit of studying the "Selected Works of KIM IL SUNG" and his other works and biography among the Party members, and brought them to deeply grasp the great ideas of Juche of the Leader and his immortal revolutionary history and the sagacity of his leadership and his lofty virtues.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai who cherished in mind the ardent feeling of singlehearted reverence for the Leader regarded it as the loftiest trait and greatest happiness of a revolutionary to remain loyal to the Leader, infinitely revered Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, as the only centre of the political and ideological unity of the 40 million Korean people, as the great Leader who fought for 15 years against the brigandish Japanese imperialists and won victory and founded the ever-victorious Workers' Party of Korea and the first state of proletarian dictatorship in this land, ushering in the shining, new historic era of socialism and communism, and as the brilliant Leader who founded the revolutionary theories of Juche in the Korean revolution and brightly illumines the road ahead of the South Korean revolution, and educated the revolutionaries and people in infinite loyalty to the Leader.

The Comrade, deeply aware of the great role of revolutionary publications in the political propaganda activities of the Party, participated in the founding of the "Revolutionary Front," the organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and the journal "Chungmaik" and conducted revolutionary publishing and literary activities.

The Comrade was not only one of the publishers and editors of revolutionary publications, but a prominent author. The Comrade wrote the "Inaugural Article" of "Chungmaik" and many revolutionary political essays such as "For the Advance of History" "Is the Spirit of the April 19 Alive?" and through his fiery writings ardently appealed to the masses of the people to struggle against the colonial fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists and their stooges and establish independency and Juche of the nation.

The passionate literary activity of the Comrade, a revolutionary political essayist, served as a powerful weapon in increasing the combat strength of the United Revolutionary Party and rousing the masses of the people in an anti-U.S., national salvation struggle and a dagger piercing the hearts of the aggressors and traitors to the nation.

Through his versatile political propaganda activities, Comrade Kim Jong Tai instilled into the masses of the people groping in the darkness the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung lighting the path of freedom and liberation and rallied them around the Leader as firm as a rock.

At the same time the Comrade, while closely linking the work of accumulating and reinforcing the revolutionary forces with the mass struggle, skillfully organized and guided the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of workers, peasants, youth and students and intellectuals and people of all other strata and further awakened and steeled the masses in the storm of the struggle.

The Comrade prepared the masses for a decisive struggle for knocking down the U.S. imperialists and their stooges, combining the struggle of all forms—political struggle with economic struggle, legal struggle with illegal struggle, violent struggle with non-violent struggle—to suit the subjective and objective situations obtaining in South Korea.

Particularly, the Comrade organized and carried on bold activities for obtaining weapons and training tactical cadres in preparation for the decisive hour of destroying the bastion of colonial rule of the enemy by violent method.

In the trials of the arduous struggle the Comrade prepared himself as more seasoned and tempered professional revolutionary and revolutionized a large number of comrades and reared them as fine revolutionary backbone elements.

The Comrade who hewed the path of the bloody struggle for a long period like a phoenix was unfortunately arrested by the enemy in July, 1968.

The Comrade, however, would never bring down the flag of the revolution.

The Comrade courageously waged a court struggle and prison-breaking struggle, ceaselessly fighting the enemy with fortitude, turning the prison and "court" into new arenas of struggle, and sternly condemned the aggressors and traitors, frustrating the repeated murderous "trials" by the enemy.

In the whole period of the prison struggle the Comrade did not bend the lofty principle of a Korean Communist and determinedly resisted the enemy, biting his tongue, even at the moment of falling unconscious due to the brutal torture by the enemy, bearing deep in mind the teaching of the Leader that those who make revolution must never mar their political life, even though their physical life may die.

Seized with uneasiness and fear in face of the revolutionary principle of the Comrade who would rather die than be bent, the fascist hangmen "passed" upon the Comrade a "death sentence" on Jan. 25, 1969, under the notorious "National Security Law" and "Anti-Communist Law."

But the Comrade, deeply convinced of the justness of his cause, never showed pessimism before the enemy, and he staunchly waged the protest struggle, bitterly denouncing the crimes of the blackest dye of the enemy.

Memorial Address by Comrade Pak Sung Chul, Member of Political Committee, C.C., WPK and Vice-Premier of Cabinet

PYONGYANG, July 14 (KCNA)—Comrade Pak Sung Chul, Member of the Political Committee of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea and vice-Premier of the Cabinet, made the following memorial address at the memorial service for the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, held at the Pyongyang Grand Theatre yesterday:

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai!

Today we bid our last farewell with irrepressible deep sorrow to the late Comrade, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, ardent patriot and Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, who performed precious exploits in the sacred struggle for the South Korean revolution and the historic cause of national unification, which will shine forever in the annals of the fatherland.

The U.S. imperialist aggressors, the sworn enemy of the Korean people, and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique cruelly deprived the Comrade of his dear life on July 10, 1969.

Thus, the burning heart of the Comrade ceased to beat.

The Comrade departed from us, to our sorrow, at the age of 44 not to see the day of the unification of the fatherland for which the Comrade gave up his youth and life, his all unreservedly, the day of glory when the 40 million Korean people will live together a hope-filled, happy life under the leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader.

The Comrade, firmly convinced of the victory of the revolution till the last moment of his life at the execution ground, died a brave and heroic death, shouting at the top of his voice, "Long live Comrade Kim Il Sung!" looking up to the northern sky.

Let us look back on our past. How many revolutionary martyrs of this country shed their blood and gave up their lives for the freedom and independence of the fatherland and the liberation of the nation in the flames of the 15-year-long glorious anti-Japanese armed struggle, under the gunfire during the just Fatherland Liberation War against the U.S. imperialist armed invaders and in the storms of the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle for the liberation of South Korea!

The Korean people lost one more dear comrade on the road of the arduous revolution.

This is a great loss for us.

Upon hearing the sad news that Comrade Kim Jong Tai was murdered, the entire Korean people are unable to repress deep sorrow welling up within them and a burning hatred for the enemy and even the mountains and the rivers, trees and grass are shaking with wrath.

On the day when the Comrade was murdered the sky of the fatherland was overcast with dark clouds of sorrow as if it were mourning for the death of an ardent patriot.

I, in the name of the Central Committee of the Workers' Party of Korea and the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and the entire Korean people, express deep grief before the spirit of the late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, who ended his dear life in the flames of the fierce anti-U.S., national salvation struggle for carrying out the strategic and tactical line on the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, put forth by Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, upholding his revolutionary ideas. I also take this opportunity to express deep condolence to the bereft family of the deceased and his comrades-in-arms.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter!

The Comrade traversed a rugged path of trials under the harsh colonial oppression and exploitation by the Japanese imperialists and the U.S. imperialists after he was born into a poor peasant family in Naingchun-dong, Keumho myun, Yungchun county, North Kyungsang Province, on November 24, 1926.

The Comrade, boundlessly revering Comrade Kim Il Sung, the sun of our nation, who lifted high the torchlight of the restoration of the fatherland on the peak of Mount Paikdoo and shed the light of the dawn of national liberation on the 3,000-ri land of mountains and rivers in the darkest period of the Japanese imperialist rule, and firmly convinced of the restoration of the fatherland, instilled the anti-Japanese patriotic ideas in youth and students and after August 15, 1945, the Comrade carried on an indomitable struggle against the occupation of South Korea by the U.S. imperialists and their policy of colonial enslavement.

From right after the August 15 the Comrade organized and guided the youth and students' movement against the colonial rule of the U.S. imperialists in Yungchun and Taegu areas in North Kyungsang Province, and from 1948 he put heart and soul into the work of educating youth and students in a revolutionary way, teaching in specializing schools and universities in the area of Kyungsang Provinces to lay a foundation for more positive revolutionary activities.

Having taken the road of professional revolutionary activities after the war, the Comrade organized the "Chungmaik Society" by rallying progressive youth already in 1956, and organized and mobilized the people in Kyungsang Provinces in a mass uprising against the U.S. imperialists and the Syngman Rhee puppet clique at the time of the April Popular Uprising in 1960.

After the April Popular Uprising the Comrade, working as a guiding advisor of the North Kyungsang Provincial Labour Federation in Taegu, North Kyungsang Province, waged a powerful struggle for the democratic development of the working class movement, and founded "Hankook Rodong Shinmoon" and devoted all his energies through his militant journalistic activities to the work of bringing the working class and peasant masses to revolutionary enlightenment and awakening.

The most reactionary "military coup" rigged up by the Pak Jung Hi military fascist clique under the wirepulling of the U.S. imperialists plunged the South Korean people into the mire of more unbearable misfortunes and calamities and brought new trials to the Comrade.

The enemy suppressed in a sanguinary way the patriotic struggle of the South Korean people for freedom and liberation and for the unification of the fatherland and turned the land of South Korea into a crucible of harsher military fascism.

The Comrade Kim Jong Tai, with still more burning hatred for the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi military fascist clique, embarked upon the road of more powerful underground revolutionary activities to overthrow in a revolutionary way the cursed colonial military fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists imposed upon South Korea and liquidate everything, old and corrupt, suffocating South Korean society, and build a free and happy new society.

The Comrade was well aware that revolution does not advance like a ship sailing before the wind and there are many vicissitudes and sacrifices on the road of the revolution. But the Comrade could not look on with folded arms at the wretched plight of millions of workers, peasants and entire South Korean people who were suffering from the unheard-of harsh exploitation and oppression and unbearable famine and poverty and dying with grudge.

The Comrade was filled with the revolutionary fighting spirit of braving any sacrifice and throwing himself without hesitation even into fire and water for the people.

In carrying on his revolutionary activities, the Comrade took first of all the ever-victorious revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Marxist-Leninist of our times and brilliant Leader of the Korean revolution, as the sole guiding compass and used them as powerful weapon in the struggle.

The Comrade educated and awakended in the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader the South Korean people who could not find a way out though they were falling and dying under the colonial fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique and opened the road of struggle before them and led them along the road of the revolution.

The Comrade carried on indefatigable activities for building a revolutionary party, upholding the lofty idea of the Leader that in order to win victory in the South Korean revolution a militant and dynamic revolutionary Marxist-Leninist Party should be built and powerful revolutionary forces formed.

The Comrade together with Comrade Choi Yung Do and other revolutionary comrades-in-arms actively pushed ahead with the organizational and ideological preparations for building a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist Party and, on this basis, founded the United Revolutionary Party, a powerful underground revolutionary organization, on March 15, 1964. The Comrade was one of the organizers who played an important role in the formation of the United Revolutionary Party and one of its guiding personnel.

The United Revolutionary Party is a militant underground revolutionary organization struggling for the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, taking the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung as the sole guiding ideas.

The United Revolutionary Party put it forth as its programme of struggle to prepare powerful revolutionary forces with workers and peasants as the mainstay and drive the U.S. imperialist aggressors out of South Korea and overthrow their stooges, achieve the independent unification of the fatherland and thus accomplish the national liberation democratic revolution, and organized and mobilized the masses of the people in the vigorous anti-U.S., national salvation struggle.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai, assuming the heavy duty of the Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, dedicated his all to carrying into effect the programme of struggle of the Party and struggled, day and night, to build up the Party organization more firmly into a revolutionary organization striking its roots deep among the workers, peasants, youth and students and intellectuals.

The Comrade was one of the competent leading personnel who reared many nuclear elements of the United Revolutionary Party in the trials of the arduous underground revolutionary activities and one of the skillful organizers who rapidly expanded and developed the revolutionary organization among the workers, peasants, youth and students and intellectuals.

While struggling to build up the Party organization firmly, the Comrade took an active part in the struggle for forming the "National Liberation Front" and the "Fatherland Liberation Front" and a broad anti-U.S., national salvation united front embracing the masses of people of all strata.

The Comrade also took an active part in the work of organizing such democratic organizations as the "Association of University Graduates in the 1960's," "Pub of University Graduates," "Chungmaik Society," "Society for Study of Nationalism," "Society for Study of New Culture," "Young Literary Men's Association," "Buddhist Youth Society," "Donghak Society," "Christian Youth Association for Economic Affluence" and "Kyungwoo Society."

The Comrade set it forth, particularly, as the first and foremost task to arm the masses of the people with the revolutionary ideas of the Leader, cherishing the firm conviction that it is the key question on which the victory or failure of the South Korean revolution depended to arm the South Korean people with the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, and closely unite them around the Leader.

Under any difficult circumstances, the Comrade always deeply acquainted the masses of the people with the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, his glorious revolutionary history of over 40 years and the sagacity of the leadership of the Leader and his lofty virtues, through "Selected Works of KIM IL SUNG" and other works of genius by the Leader, the biography of Comrade Kim Il Sung, "Reminiscences of Anti-Japanese Guerrillas" and so forth.

Impressively explaining and propagandizing the superiority of the socialist system established in the northern half of the Republic under the leadership of the Leader and happy life of the people in the northern half, the Comrade said with confidence that though the South Korean people are today undergoing unbearable national sufferings, they are struggling with hope, looking forward to a bright future, only because there is General Kim Il Sung.

The Comrade who remained faithful to the Leader with single devotion till the last moment of his life, educated the revolutionary comrades-in-arms and the masses of the people with the conviction of certain victory that they could feel matchless strength surge within them and defeat the enemy only when they struggle with the revolutionary ideas of the Leader engraved on their hearts, revering as the sun of the nation Comrade Kim Il Sung who personally established the glorious revolutionary traditions by organizing the 15-year-long, arduous anti-Japanese armed struggle and leading it to victory, and on its rock-firm basis, founded the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the genuine fatherland of the entire Korean people, and opened the new era of socialism and communism in our country.

Deeply conscious of the enormous role of the revolutionary press in the political propaganda activities, the Comrade conducted a militant literary activity.

The Comrade was one of the founders of the "Revolutionary Front," organ of the United Revolutionary Party, and "Chungmaik," journal of the Party, and was a prominent author.

The leading articles and militant political essays of the Comrade published in the "Revolutionary Front" and "Chungmaik" made a great contribution to educating the members of the United Revolutionary Party and the South Korean people in the consciousness of national independence and Juche.

The Comrade directly went down among the masses of the people and energetically pushed on political propaganda for revolutionizing them and always conducted ideological education through democratic mass organizations of various forms.

The Comrade armed the masses of the people with the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader, and firmly rallied them around the Leader through all these varied positive political propaganda activities.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai conducted the work of awakening the masses revolutionarily and fostering the revolutionary forces in close combination with the mass struggle.

The Comrade skillfully organized and guided the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of the workers, peasants and other strata of the people, rightly combining the struggle of all forms—political struggle with economic struggle, legal struggle with illegal struggle, violent struggle with non-violent struggle—to suit the obtaining situation. The Comrade elaborately organized and guided the mass demonstration struggle against the reactionary "election" farce fabricated by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique in 1967 and waged an active anti-U.S. struggle, organizing demonstration struggles against the trips of bosses of the U.S. imperialist war maniacs to South Korea, scattering handbills, and so forth. Through these powerful mass struggles, the Comrade dealt serious blows at the colonial fascist rule of the U.S. imperialists and incessantly reared the revolutionary forces.

On the other hand, the Comrade attached great importance to the work of obtaining arms and training tactical cadres, deeply conscious that a decisive victory of the South Korean revolution was impossible without revolutionary violence and did everything possible to make thorough preparations for overthrowing the U.S. imperialists and Pak Jung Hi puppet clique and establishing power of the people.

In the course of this bloody struggle, Comrade Kim Jong Tai was unfortunately arrested and imprisoned by the enemy in July, 1968 and faced new, grim trials.

But, the Comrade upheld to the last the lofty principle of a revolutionary that he would not be bent, even if he might be broken, and fought like a phoenix, turning the prison and murderous "court" into new arenas of struggle.

The Comrade also unfolded a bold prison-breaking struggle on September 19, 1968, leaving his dear family members and revolutionary comrades-in-arms in prison inspiring letters evoking in their hearts conviction of victory. Thrown into utter confusion by this, the enemy staged a murderous "trial" almost every day, putting him to barbarous tortures defying description and, after "passing" upon him a "death sentence" on January 25 this year, brewed a sinister plot to hastily murder him and at last perpetrated the thrice-cursed barbarity of murdering him on July 10.

Owing to this atrocious barbarity of murder committed by the enemy, the Comrade, who had dedicated his whole life to the revolution, left our side.

The Comrade, who had dedicated his whole life to the emancipation of the masses of the oppressed and exploited people in South Korea, hewing a rugged path of the revolution, left our side and is no longer with us.

The Comrade shed blood and dedicated his life on the glorious road of revolution for the hope-filled morrow when the grand conception of Comrade Kim Il Sung will come into full bloom in the beautiful land of 3,000 ri and for driving the U.S. imperialist aggressors out of South Korea and unifying the fatherland.

Indeed, the whole life of the Comrade was a brilliant life of a communist who lived through a struggle and died a hero on the road of revolution.

Through arduous revolutionary activities and an indomitable struggle, fearing neither prison nor death, the Comrade showed well the South Korean people how a revolutionary armed with the revolutionary ideas of the Leader should live and fight.

Comrade Kim Il Sung earnestly taught us in the early days that those who make revolution must have the revolutionary creed that they "will not mar their political life even though their physical life may die."

Comrade Kim Jong Tai was a true revolutionary soldier of the Leader who, cherishing deep in mind these words of the Leader, remained infinitely loyal to the Leader to the last moment of his life for the victory of the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland, and an ardent patriot and communist who revolutionized his whole family and organized and mobilized with great ability the masses of the people of broad strata in the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle.

The Comrade was an indomitable fighter who fought always with the conviction of certain victory and energetic fighting spirit in face of grim trials and a staunch revolutionary filled with uncompromizing fighting spirit against the enemy and revolutionary comradeship and revolutionary optimism for the future.

Therefore, the entire Korean people, highly praising the revolutionary exploits of the Comrade, denounced with surging indignation the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique who illegally arrested and imprisoned him and hatched plots of bestial murder against him.

The honest-minded people of the world, together with the Korean people, waged a powerful struggle in all parts of the globe, demanding the unconditional and immediate release of the Comrade and the Executive Committee of the International Organization of Journalists awarded the honourable "International Prize of Journalist" to him in high recognition of his lofty revolutionary exploits.

But the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique hastily murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tai at a time when the voices of protest and denunciation were ringing out still higher from among the entire Korean people and the world people and the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of the youth and students and people was being waged fiercely in South Korea. This is an unbearable insult to the Korean people who aspire after the liberation of South Korea and the unification of the fatherland and an unpardonable challenge to progressive mankind of the whole world who values justice and truth.

The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique who killed in cold blood Comrade Choi Yung Do on January 25 committed again the atrocity of murdering Comrade Kim Jong Tai in a bestial way. Where are fascist hangmen more atrocious than them? And where are murderous bandits more heinous than them?

This thrice-murderous atrocity of the enemy is nothing but the last kick of the doomed.

Today the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique are frantically trying to find a way out of the serious crisis of their colonial rule uncontrollably crumbling in South Korea in the criminal policy of war and the fascist suppression of the people. The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique have converted South Korea into huge army barracks and are desperately kicking up a new war racket and, at the same time, illegally arrested and imprisoned a large number of South Korean revolutionaries and patriots on charges of involvement in the "case" of the United Revolutionary Party, "case" of the South Korean Liberation Strategic Party, "case" of the People's Revolutionary Party and various other "cases" and are trying feverishly to massacre them collectively, staging murderous "trials" almost every day.

With no manoeuvres, however, can the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique bridge over the crisis of the tottering colonial fascist rule or put down the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of the South Korean people flaring up like a prairie fire.

The enemy may kill one revolutionary, but they can neither dampen his lofty revolutionary spirit armed with the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader nor can they block the advance of thousands of, tens of thousands of revolutionaries and patriots who, succeeding him, turn out to life-and-death battles of revolution.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai who had waged heroic revolutionary activities for the revolutionary cause of the working class and for the liberation of the South Korean people, holding aloft the banner of the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle, was murdered by the enemy. But the precious blood shed by the Comrade will never be spoilt and the lofty revolutionary spirit of the Comrade will live long in the hearts of our people.

The glorious life of the Comrade is a brilliant example and paragon for the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots who are fighting for freedom and liberation and the unification of the country.

The Presidium of the Supreme People's Assembly of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea awarded the Comrade the Title of Hero of the Republic, the highest honour of the Korean people, highly appraising his lofty feats of struggle, and the Political Committee of the Central Committee of the Party decided to call the Pyongyang Electric Locomotive Factory and the Haejoo Normal College respectively the Kim Jong Tai Electric Locomotive Factory and the Kim Jong Tai Normal College.

This is the most honourable, highest commendation conferred upon the Comrade, a fine son of our fatherland.

Now the angry wave of burning hatred for and indignation at the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique who brutally murdered Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, is sweeping the whole country and the whole world, and the entire Korean people are renewing their unshakable determination to certainly avenge upon the enemy a hundred-fold, a thousand-fold.

The South Korean revolutionaries and workers, peasants, youth and students, intellectuals and other strata of the people are raising higher the flames of the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle for crushing the U.S. imperialists and their lackeys, upholding the revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader.

We can never forget the South Korean revolutionary martyrs who laid down their lives in the storm of the sacred struggle for overthrowing the colonial fascist rule of U.S. imperialism and can never forget the compatriots, brothers and sisters, who lost their lives under the harsh exploitation and oppression by the enemy.

At this sorrowful moment of paying the last homage to Comrade Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter, today, the entire people of the northern half of the Republic—the workers by the machines, farmers in the fields, the fighters of the People's Army standing guard over the posts, etc.—are confirming and confirming their flaming resolve to avenge upon the enemy without fail.

The people of the northern half of the Republic, with burning hatred for the enemy, will further consolidate our revolutionary base and do everything in their power to assist the fighting people of South Korea.

Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, said: "We should always give active material and moral support and encouragement to the South Korean people in their anti-U.S., national salvation struggle and consider the task of the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland our first and foremost revolutionary task."

The entire people will arm themselves more firmly with the great revolutionary ideas of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the unitary ideas of our Party, and will all energetically push ahead with economic construction and defence upbuilding in the spirit of Chullima and of each being a match for a hundred foes, holding aloft the historic report of Comrade Kim Il Sung at the Conference of the Party, the great

CHONGRYUN Categorically Denounces U.S. Imperialism And Pak Jung Hi Bandits for Heinous Execution of Kim Jong Tai, Indomitable Revolutionary Fighter

The Central Standing Committee of CHONGRYUN (the General Association of Korean Residents in Japan) issued on July 12 a statement, categorically condemning the U.S. imperialists and their stooges Pak Jung Hi military gang for perpetrating on July 10 a thrice-cursed atrocity of murdering Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter and ardent patriot, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the South Korean United Revolutionary Party.

The full text of the statement is as follows:

The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique perpetrated on July 10 a thrice-cursed criminal act of executing Kim Jong Tai, an indomitable revolutionary fighter and ardent patriot, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the South Korean United Revolutionary Party.

Now, 600,000 Korean citizens in Japan, together with people in the northern and southern halves of the fatherland, cannot repress their surging indignation at the horrific atrocity of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist band.

On Jan. 25 this year the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang imposed "death sentences" and heavy penalties upon Kim Jong Tai and his comrades-in-arms in a murderous court trial of members of the United Revolutionary Party and on May 10 last committed a vicious criminal act of confirming his "death sentence," rejecting his appeal.

After the first instance of the trial, the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet gang continued to subject Kim Jong Tai in particular to specially-prepared most inhuman barbarous torture for long, driving him into a coma and making him speechless, and robbed him of even an opportunity of appeal. Finally, the scoundrels slaughtered him in cold blood.

This fully and thoroughly exposes the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique as the horde of vicious murderers and heinous hangmen.

The Central Standing Committee of the General Association of Korean Residents in Japan, in the name of 600,000 Korean citizens in Japan, categorically denounces with surging national indignation the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi traitorous band for their villainous fascist atrocity.

Such a criminal barbarity act committed by the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique against Kim Jong Tai, a brilliant son of the Korean people, is not only another impermissible act of provocation against the entire Korean people and a naked challenge to the progressive peoples the world over who love justice and peace and value human dignity.

Their execution of Kim Jong Tai in such an inhuman manner after murdering Choi Yung Do, Chairman of the South Cholla Provincial Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, is indeed an death-bed attempt on the part of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi murderous horde to cope with the crisis of their collapsing colonial rule by barring the growth of the revolutionary forces in South Korea.

As is known well, present-day South Korea is a living hell and dark land where people cannot live any longer in a human way due to the diabolical colonial fascist rule maintained by the U.S. imperialists and their stooges for 24 years.

In the face of this catastrophic situation, Kim Jong Tai and other members of the United Revolutionary Party, upholding the revolutionary ideas of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader of the 40 million Korean people, waged vigorously anti-U.S., national salvation struggles to ensure a democratic development of the South Korean society and accomplish a unification of the fatherland along the road of revolution illumined by the Leader.

These anti-U.S., national salvation activities conducted by Kim Jong Tai and other South Korean revolutionaries and patriots are completely justifiable struggles which represented the unanimous desire and aspiration of all the South Korean people to overthrow the U.S. imperialist colonial rule, accomplish national unification and share freedom and happiness in the bosom of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people. They can never be "crime" and are rather patriotic activities which deserve high praises.

Those who should naturally be tried and executed by the people are none other than the U.S. imperialist aggressors who have occupied the southern half of our country, hampering the unification of the country and bringing all sorts of misfortunes and sufferings upon the South Korean people and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang who have become their dirty running dogs, making a business of committing nation-selling traitorous acts.

No matter what fascist barbarities the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi gang may resort to in confrontation with the patriotic forces and people of South Korea, they will not be able to escape from the abyss of death into which they are falling daily deeper.

Their murderous antics will only hasten their ruin.

Marshal Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader said:

"The fascist tyranny by the U.S. imperialists and their hirelings in South Korea is merely leading to the further awakening and steeling of the South Korean people and to the strengthening of the revolutionary forces that will eventually sweep away the colonial system of the U.S. imperialists."

The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppets could execute Kim Jong Tai, but were not able to dampen with their barbarous suppression his revolutionary will, indomitable fighting spirit and lofty constancy.

Though Kim Jong Tai was homicided, his revolutionary spirit and shining deeds will live forever in the hearts of South Korean patriots and people.

If the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique murder one revolutionary, large troops of thousands of, tens of thousands of new revolutionary fighters will join in the ranks of struggle and will accomplish the revolutionary cause he left unfinished.

Today, South Korean revolutionaries and patriots, looking up to Marshal Kim Il Sung, an outstanding Leader of the Korean revolution as the sun of the nation, are waging indomitable struggles in cities and countryside and in all parts of South Korea, following the road of revolution indicated by the Leader.

Now, the flames of just struggles of South Korean youths and students are enveloping the whole of South Korea in opposition to the long-term "office" scheme of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique. The struggles of people in all walks of life including those of workers and peasants, are also expanding.

The South Korean people should more resolutely struggle to drive the U.S. imperialist aggressors out of South Korea, overthrow the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique and achieve an independent unification of the fatherland, upholding the revolutionary ideas of Marshal Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader.

CHONGRYUN workers and Korean citizens in Japan are now energetically struggling to oppose the new war provocations of the U.S. imperialists in Korea and their fascist suppression of the people and bring earlier the unification of the fatherland.

Burning with revengeful thought against the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi fascist gang, Korean citizens in Japan will more stubbornly rise up as one to support and encourage the just struggle of the South Korean revolutionaries and patriots, strengthening national unity within Korean compatriots in this country.

The U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi clique will not be able to evade the doomsday with whatever frantic attempt.

The burning desire of our people who want to see the 40 million Korean people lead a free and happy life in a unified fatherland with Marshal Kim Il Sung, the great Leader as their Leader, will certainly be realized.

Further discomfited by this, the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi traitorous clique confirmed "death sentence" upon the Comrade, denying him even the right of appeal, and committed the dastardly barbarity of murdering the Comrade, when the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of the students and people flared up violently in South Korea recently which threw a scare into them.

The heart of Comrade Kim Jong Tai, Chairman of the Seoul Municipal Committee of the United Revolutionary Party, which had pulsated high with revolutionary passion ceased to beat.

The Comrade, to our deep regret, ended his lofty life of a revolutionary at the age of 44, before seeing the days of the victory of the South Korean revolution and unification of the fatherland for which he fought, shedding blood, in his lifetime.

But the life of the Comrade was a brilliant life of a communist burning like a torch and never going out of the road of revolution.

The whole life of the Comrade is, indeed, a true paragon for all the South Korean revolutionaries for his absolute respect for and boundless loyalty to Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader and the great sun of our nation, and for the immortal exploits he made for the revolution, upholding the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader.

Comrade Kim Jong Tai made a great contribution to forming the powerful main force of revolution by building up a Marxist-Leninist Party in South Korea and rallying workers and peasants around it and to steadily expanding and developing the revolutionary movement.

The Comrade was a true revolutionary soldier of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the respected and beloved Leader, who remained boundlessly faithful to the Leader with single devotion, dedicating himself and the whole family to revolution, and an ardent communist who built up a revolutionary party and organized and mobilized the masses of the people with great ability in the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle by embodying the great revolutionary ideas of the Leader in practical activities.

The Comrade was an ardent patriot who fought against the system of colonial rule of the U.S. imperialists imposed upon South Korea and for the national and social emancipation of the workers, peasants and the masses of the people of other strata and a staunch revolutionary who inspired the comrades in struggle, pulling through indescribable hardships with his own practical examples.

The Comrade was an indomitable fighter who was uncompromising toward the enemy and who possessed warm revolutionary comradeship and strong will, energetic fighting spirit and revolutionary optimism.

The Comrade, indeed, well showed through his whole life how a soldier of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader, should live and fight for the Party and the Leader, for the fatherland and the people.

This is why the entire Korean people highly praised the lofty fighting exploits of the Comrade and struggled for his unconditional and immediate release, exposing and denouncing the criminal act of the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique who illegally arrested and imprisoned him.

The revolutionary people throughout the world also merged their voices into one in denouncing the enemy, and struggled in demand of the release of the Comrade, and the Executive Committee of the International Organization of Journalists decided to award him "International Prize of journalist" highly praising his revolutionary exploits and literary activity for the South Korean revolution and the cause of the unification of the fatherland.

But the U.S. imperialist aggressors and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen murdered the Comrade in the end, defying the powerful protest and denunciation by the entire Korean people and the world people.

This is nothing but an act of desperation of those facing their doom.

If the U.S. imperialists and their stooges dare murder one revolutionary, hundreds of, thousands of new revolutionaries and patriots will succeed him and turn out to the sites of decisive battle for the South Korean revolution.

With no desperate effort can the U.S. imperialists and the Pak Jung Hi puppet clique strangulate the growing revolutionary forces in South Korea or bridge over the crisis of their crumbling colonial rule.

The murder of Comrade Kim Jong Tai is now evoking among the entire North and South Korean people fierce hatred and burning revengeful thought against the U.S. imperialist wild beasts and the Pak Jung Hi fascist hangmen.

The revolutionaries and entire people of South Korea are waging more vigorously the anti-U.S., national salvation struggle of all forms in towns and villages, underground and in mountains, renewing their rock-firm determination to explode the powder magazine of revolution in South Korea sooner or later, carrying forward the cause left unfinished by Comrade Kim Jong Tai.

The people in the northern half of the Republic, deeply mourning over the death of Comrade Kim Jong Tai, are supporting more powerfully the South Korean people in their revolutionary struggle and raising higher the flames of the great revolutionary upsurge in all fields of economic construction and defence upbuilding, with the resolve to avenge the Comrade on the enemy.

Invincible is the revolutionary cause of the Korean people who are under the outstanding leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader, and the U.S. imperialists and their stooges will certainly meet their doom.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai!

Faithful soldier of the Leader, who lived whole life through a struggle!

You shed blood never in vain. Your noble name and the immortal feats you accomplished by shedding blood will be recorded in block letters in the glorious revolutionary history of our people and your lofty revolutionary spirit will live forever in the minds of our people.

Comrade!

May you sleep in peace!

10-point Political Programme of the Government of the Republic announced by him and his report at the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Republic.

The entire people of the northern half will make full preparations and maintain a strained and mobilized posture always with heightened revolutionary vigilance, so they can be mobilized in a decisive struggle for accomplishing the South Korean revolution and the historic cause of national unification, uniting strength with the South Korean people, whenever they so request.

Ever-victorious and invincible is the revolutionary cause of the Korean people who are under the wise leadership of Comrade Kim Il Sung, the great Leader of the 40 million Korean people, peerless patriot, national hero, ever-victorious, iron-willed brilliant commander and one of the outstanding leaders of the international communist movement and working-class movement.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai, Hero of the Republic!

Faithful revolutionary soldier of the Leader and proud son of our fatherland!

You left us to our deep regret at this moment when the day of the victory of the South Korean revolution and the unification of the fatherland is near in the offing. But the blood shed by you will never be spoilt.

The late Comrade Kim Jong Tai!

May you sleep in peace!
